NEW YORK CITY TRANSITIONAL FINANCE AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES SUCCESSFUL SALE OF $750 MILLION OF NEW MONEY BUILDING AID REVENUE BONDS

The New York City Transitional Finance Authority (“TFA”) announced today the successful sale of $750 million of Building Aid Revenue Bonds (“BARBs”).

The TFA received approximately $354 million of retail orders for the tax-exempt bonds during the two-day retail order period preceding today’s sale. The TFA received approximately $1.7 billion of priority orders from institutional investors on the approximately $579 million of bonds offered to institutions. At the final pricing, strong investor demand made it possible to reduce yields by up to 7 basis points in 21 maturities. Final stated yields on the bonds varied by coupon and maturity, ranging from 0.24% in 2016 to 2.93% in 2043 for a 5% coupon bond and 3.25% in 2044 for a 4% coupon bond. The bonds were sold via negotiated sale by the TFA’s underwriting syndicate, led by book-running senior manager Ramirez & Co., Inc., with Goldman, Sachs & Co. serving as co-senior manager on the transaction.

Standard & Poor’s rates the bonds at AA, Fitch Ratings rates the bonds at AA, and Moody’s Investors Service rates the bonds at Aa2.
