STATEMENT FROM NEW YORK CITY COMPTROLLER SCOTT M. STRINGER ON THE PASSING OF JUDITH KAYE

"Today New York lost a true trailblazer. Judith Kaye sat on the bench of the Court of Appeals for twenty five years, and steered our highest court into the 21st century. A born and raised New Yorker, she was a model public servant, an outspoken defender of equal rights, a brilliant jurist, and a fierce reformer. No one has ever been more committed to cleaning up our courts, and ensuring justice for the people of New York. She will be greatly missed."
