“Working at the Comptroller’s office, I was not only exposed to what happened behind closed doors, but also exposed to the real world...I learned that one’s work ethic, attitude, and willingness to learn can make an absolute difference.”

- Ashley Marc, 2015 Summer Intern in Litigation

“I got to interact with different communities through outreach activities and special events the Comptroller hosted such as the Haitian Caribbean Heritage Night, the LGBTQ Pride event at Macy’s, and the Eid event in Woodside, Queens.

I went to neighborhoods such as Parkchester in the Bronx and the Upper West Side. I had never been to these communities, despite being born and raised in NYC.”

- Evelyn Ng, 2015 Summer Intern in Community Affairs

“I think this internship far exceeded my expectations. I was able to learn, connect, and work in a great environment. In my position I felt as if the work I was doing was important and had an impact on the community.”
