NEW YORK, NY - Comptroller John C. Liu will host a celebration of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Pride Month on Tuesday, June 8, 2010.

Comptroller Liu stated: "June is Pride Month and a time for our City to recognize the achievements and contributions of our LGBT community. We will reaffirm the commitment to building a society that values the dignity of every person and celebrate leaders who have worked tirelessly in pursuit of equality and justice in the City of New York."

He will also unveil the 2010 edition of the Directory of LGBT Services and Resources, which features a listing of over 600 groups throughout the city, including community organizations, HIV/AIDS resources, healthcare providers, support groups, legal services, religious institutions, professional associations and other vital services in the metropolitan area. The Directory will be made available on the same day at comptroller.nyc.gov/lgbt with a new searchable online database.

The celebration will honor:

MICHAEL ADAMS – Executive Director of Services & Advocacy for GLBT Elders

KENYON FARROW – Executive Director of the Queers for Economic Justice

KRIS HAYASHI – Executive Director for the Audre Lourde Project

ROSEMARY LOPEZ- Associate Director for Program Services at the AIDS Center of Queens County.

The members of this year's Host Committee include: AIDS Center of Queens (ACQC); Asian & Pacific Islander Coalition on HIV/AIDS (APICHA); Empire State Pride Agenda Foundation, Inc.; Gay Asian & Pacific Islander Men of New York (GAPIMNY); Gay Men of African Descent (GMAD); Gay Men's Health Crisis (GMHC) and New York Association for Gender Rights Advocacy (NYAGRA).
