LIU CONGRATULATES MARIANO RIVERA

NEW YORK, N.Y. – “Congratulations to Yankee closer Mariano Rivera who was named Most Valuable Player in the final All Star Game of his remarkable career. When he walked onto the mound at Citi Field last night he got a standing ovation from the players on both teams and everyone in the packed stadium, including thousands of die-hard Mets fans like me who aren’t used to cheering for a Yankee.

“Not only is Mariano a future Hall of Famer, he is a humanitarian known for his charitable endeavors on behalf of children in his native Panama and throughout the world. He has earned the admiration of baseball fans everywhere. Congrats Mariano. You made this City proud.”
