NEW YORK CITY COMPTROLLER

LGBTQIA+ GUIDE

SERVICES + RESOURCES
2026

Happy Pride Month!

It is my privilege to introduce the New York City Comptroller's Office 2026 edition of the LGBTQIA+ Resource Guide, a comprehensive directory of organizations and services dedicated to supporting the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, and Asexual individuals who call our city home.

This guide reflects our Office's continued commitment to uplifting LGBTQIA+ communities by ensuring access to essential services, affirming healthcare, legal protections, and inclusive spaces for all New Yorkers.

Attacks on LGBTQIA+ rights, particularly the rights of transgender and nonbinary people, continue to shape the national landscape. Efforts to restrict access to gender-affirming care, limit protections for transgender youth, censor LGBTQIA+ voices in schools and public institutions, and undermine anti-discrimination safeguards have created uncertainty and fear for many members of our community. LGBTQIA+ immigrants, asylum seekers, and refugees also face unique challenges as they seek safety, stability, and opportunity.

As the birthplace of the modern LGBTQIA+ rights movement and home to one of the largest LGBTQIA+ populations in the world, our city has a responsibility to defend the dignity, safety, and humanity of all LGBTQIA+ New Yorkers and reject efforts to marginalize or erase any member of our community.

That means ensuring people know how to get housing, healthcare, mental health services, legal assistance, workforce development opportunities, and community support.

The organizations listed within this guide are on the front lines of this fight every day, providing lifesaving support, advocating for justice, and ensuring LGBTQIA+ New Yorkers can find welcoming spaces in times of need great and small. Their work strengthens our city and creates the conditions for equity, inclusion, and community to thrive. Our office is proud to support and amplify their efforts.

As Comptroller, I remain all in on this fight alongside LGBTQIA+ New Yorkers and allies. My office will continue to stand against policies threatening the health, safety, and rights, and well-being of LGBTQIA+ communities, and work towards real equity so that all New Yorkers, regardless of background, identity, or orientation are afforded access to vital resources and opportunities throughout New York City. Every New Yorker deserves to live with dignity, respect, and the freedom to be their authentic self.

We hope you will find this edition of the LGBTQIA+ Resource Guide to be a valuable resource and encourage you to share it with colleagues, friends, family members, and neighbors. Together, we can continue building a city where everyone is welcomed and can thrive.

In solidarity,

Mark D. Levine
New York City Comptroller

“The Comptroller’s LGBTQIA+ Guide has been beneficial to both the Pride Center and our community, making it so much easier for our community members to access the assistance they need - and for our staff and volunteers to share this information. As an organization dedicated to serving the diverse needs of the LGBTQ+ community in Brooklyn, we often encounter individuals seeking specific resources or support systems. The guide has allowed us to quickly and accurately direct them to the appropriate organizations, agencies, and programs. This not only saves time but also ensures that individuals receive the assistance they require promptly.”

-Omari Scott, Director, Development & Communications for Brooklyn Pride Community Center

“The Comptroller’s LGBTQIA+ Guide has been vital for our referral and outreach program to connect with other agencies on supporting our community, conducting outreach to other providers, and to building collaboration in response to our mission and the needs of the LGBTQ+ community at large.”

-Alex Roque, President and Director of Ali Forney Center

“The Comptroller’s LGBTQIA+ Guide is a critical resource for ACS youth in care. The guide provides comprehensive listings of affirming and culturally responsive services and providers which can be a lifeline for youth who are looking for supports that are safe and accepting. The Comptroller’s Guide is also an amazing resource for child welfare and juvenile justice professionals and foster parents who are connecting LGBTQ+ youth to services that they are known are vetted and can competently serve this vulnerable population.”

-Sonia Galarza, ACS LGBTQIA Committee

“The resource guide was not only useful information, but the tools provided inside has been empowering for me to embrace my identity and sense of belonging in the LGBTQ+ Community.”

-Frankie from Harlem

Help Obtaining Benefits

A number of programs provide support to New York City residents who may need assistance. Information about some of these programs is below and can also be obtained by calling 311. In addition, ACCESS NYC is an online screening tool that can help you determine the City, State, and Federal health and human service benefit programs for which you are potentially eligible. Please visit access.nyc.gov.

Reporting Discrimination

New York City's Human Rights Law is among the most expansive civil rights laws in the country, prohibiting discrimination in employment, housing, and public accommodations based on gender (including sexual harassment), gender identity, and sexual orientation.

If you experience discrimination in New York City, you have the option of either filing a claim in court or filing a claim with the Law Enforcement Bureau of the New York City Commission on Human Rights (Commission). To report discrimination to the Commission, call 311 or (718) 722-3131. You can also learn more about options available to you and the process of filing a claim at <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/cchr/help/i-need-help.page>.

Cash Assistance

Cash Assistance provides monetary assistance to eligible low-income families and individuals. To find a New York City Job Center where you can apply for Cash Assistance and other public benefits, call 311 or visit <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/hra/locations/job-locations.page>.

Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC)

Working families that earn below a certain income level may be able to receive the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC). The amount of the refund depends on the family's income and individuals' marital and parental status. To learn more about the EITC and how you can claim it, call 311 or visit www.nyc.gov/eitc.

Emergency Housing

To obtain assistance if you are homeless, call 311 or visit the following Department of Homeless Services intake centers:

- Families with children: Prevention Assistance and Temporary Housing (PATH) Center, 151 East 151st Street, Bronx, NY.
- Adult families: Adult Family Intake Center (AFIC), 400-430 East 30th Street, New York, NY.
- Single adult men: 30th Street Intake Center, 400-430 East 30th Street, New York, NY.
- Single adult women: HELP Women's Shelter, 116 Williams Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11217 or Franklin Shelter, 1122 Franklin Avenue, Bronx, NY.

Financial Empowerment Centers

Financial Empowerment Centers provide free services including money management and budgeting, financial planning, credit and debt counseling, and affordable banking services. For more information about financial empowerment assistance, contact the Department of Consumer Affairs Office of Financial Empowerment at 311 or visit <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/dca/partners/financial-empowerment.page>.

Housing Assistance

There are a number of affordable housing programs in New York City:

- Public housing is government-owned housing that is available to certain low-income individuals and families through the New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA). To obtain more information, call 311, visit <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/nycha/eligibility/apply.page>, or go to a NYCHA Walk-In Center located at either 478 East Fordham Road (1 Fordham Plaza), 2nd Floor, Bronx, NY or 787 Atlantic Avenue, 2nd Floor, Brooklyn, NY.
- Section 8 Housing Vouchers can be used by a family or individual to help pay the cost of renting a private home or apartment. Two government agencies administer Section 8 Programs: New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) and New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD). Information can be obtained through NYCHA or through HPD at <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/section-8/about-section-8.page>.

- City-subsidized affordable housing programs offer apartments at below-market rent to individuals and families that meet certain income qualifications. These programs are administered by HPD. For more information, visit <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/renters/find-housing.page>.

Job Training

NYC Workforce1 Career Centers help people find and prepare for a job. The centers provide information about new jobs and refer people to educational and occupational skills training classes. For more information, contact the Centers by calling 311 or visiting <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/sbs/careers/contact.page>.

Medicaid

Medicaid is a program that helps with medical costs for people with limited income and resources. For additional information, please contact the Medicaid Helpline at (888) 692-6116.

Municipal ID: IDNYC

In 2014, the City of New York passed a law creating a municipal identification card called "IDNYC" for residents of New York City 14 years of age and older. The IDNYC card is photo identification that can be used for many purposes, such as accessing programs and services from City government, entering City government buildings and schools, identifying oneself to NYPD police officers, and opening checking accounts at certain financial institutions. To obtain an IDNYC card, you must complete an application form and submit it at an IDNYC Enrollment Center. To make an appointment, call 311 or go to www.nyc.gov/IDNYC.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

SNAP, also known as food stamps, are cash benefits in the form of coupons and Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) cards that help families with low incomes buy food. To apply for SNAP, call 311 or visit <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/hra/help/snap-benefits-food-program.page>.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

SSI is a cash benefit for very low-income elderly (65 and older), blind, or disabled individuals. A person can apply for SSI at any Social Security Administration (SSA) Office or by calling (800) 772-1213.

Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment insurance is temporary income for eligible workers who lose their jobs through no fault of their own and who are ready, willing, and able to work. To file a claim for unemployment insurance, call (888) 209-8124 or apply online at <http://www.labor.ny.gov/unemploymentassistance.shtm>.

Wage Protections

Pursuant to Articles 8 and 9 of the New York State Labor Law and Sections 6-109 and 6-130 of the New York City Administrative Code, the New York City Comptroller's Office investigates violations of prevailing wage and living wage laws for work performed within the City of New York. If you believe your wages were stolen, please contact the NYC Comptroller's Office at (212) 669-4443 or laborlaw@comptroller.nyc.gov. For more information, visit Enforcement & Protections.

Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Program

The WIC program provides access to healthy food for certain pregnant women, mothers, and young children. To receive more information, including locations where you can apply for WIC benefits, call (800) 522-5006.

Workers' Compensation

Workers who get sick or hurt because of their job have the right to be compensated. Workers' Compensation benefits may include: (1) compensation for medical care and treatment of work-related injuries and illnesses; (2) cash benefits if the injury or illness prevents a worker from working; and (3) death benefits for the surviving spouse or dependent children of a worker who was killed on the job. For more information about Workers' Compensation, contact the Workers' Compensation Board at (877) 632-4996.
