

New York City's Living Wage Laws Know Your Rights

- ▶ Employees of private companies that provide Homecare, Day Care, Head Start services and Services to Persons with Cerebral Palsy under contract with New York City government agencies are entitled to living wages and benefits:

$10.00 per hour and a health care benefits package for the employee and the employee's family or an additional $1.50 per hour

- ▶ If a business with annual gross revenues of $5 million or more receives $1 million or more in financial assistance from the City of New York, then the business, its tenants, sub-tenants, contractors, subcontractors and concessionaires may be required to pay their employees living wages and benefits:*

$10.50 per hour and $1.70 per hour in health benefits or additional pay

Rates are valid through March 31, 2017.*

If you perform homecare, day care, head start or cerebral palsy support services for a NYC government contractor, or you work for a business that receives financial assistance from the City of New York and you believe your employer is not complying with the law, contact us.
