

NYC ADMINISTRATIVE CODE § 6-109

A City service contractor or subcontractor that provides homecare services, day care services, head start services or services to persons with cerebral palsy must pay its covered employees no less than the living wage and must provide its covered employees healthcare benefits or must supplement their hourly wage rate by an amount no less than the health benefits supplement rate.

A City service contractor or subcontractor that provides building services, food services or temporary office services must pay its covered employees no less than the living wage or the prevailing wage, whichever is greater. Where the living wage is greater than the prevailing wage, the city service contractor or subcontractor must either provide its covered employees healthcare benefits or must supplement their hourly wage rate by an amount no less than the health benefits supplement rate. Where the prevailing wage is greater than the living wage, the city service contractor or subcontractor must provide its employees the prevailing wage and supplements.

In accordance with NYC Administrative Code § 6-109, the Comptroller of the City of New York has promulgated this schedule of wages and supplemental benefits for the above services on New York City contracts for non-emergency work in excess of the small purchase limit set by the Procurement Policy Board. This schedule is required to be annexed to and form part of the contract pursuant to § 6-109.

This schedule is a compilation of separate determinations of the prevailing rate of wage and supplements made by the Comptroller for each trade classification listed herein pursuant to NYC Administrative Code section § 6-109. The source of the wage and supplement rates, whether a collective bargaining agreement, survey data or other, is listed at the end of each classification.

Agency Chief Contracting Officers should contact the Bureau of Labor Law's Classification Unit with any questions concerning trade classifications, prevailing or living wage rates or practices with respect to procurement on City service contracts. Contractors are advised to review this schedule before bidding on City service contracts. Contractors with questions concerning trade classifications, prevailing or living wage rates or practices with respect to City service contracts in the procurement stage must contact the contracting agency responsible for the procurement.

Any error as to compensation under the prevailing or living wage law or other information as to trade classification, made by the contracting agency in the contract documents or in any other communication, will not preclude a finding against the contractor of prevailing wage violation.

Any questions concerning trade classifications, prevailing or living wage rates or practices on City service contracts that have already been awarded may be directed to the Bureau of Labor Law's Classification Unit by calling (212) 669-4443. All callers must have the agency name and contract registration number available when calling with questions on City service contracts. Please direct all other compliance issues to: Bureau of Labor Law, Attn: Wasyl Kinach, P.E., Office of the Comptroller, 1 Centre Street, Room 651, New York, N.Y. 10007; Fax (212) 669-4002.

NYC Administrative Code § 6-109 requires contractors and subcontractors to post on the site of the work a current copy of this schedule of wages and supplemental benefits.

This schedule is applicable to work performed during the effective period, unless otherwise noted. Changes to this schedule are published on our web site comptroller.nyc.gov/wages. Contractors must pay the wages and supplements in effect when the City service employee performs the work. Preliminary schedules for future one-year periods appear in the City Record on or about June 1 each succeeding year. Final schedules appear on or about July 1 in the City Record and on our web site comptroller.nyc.gov/wages.

Contractors are solely responsible for maintaining original payroll records delineating, among other things, the hours worked by each employee within a given classification.

In order to meet their obligation to provide prevailing supplemental benefits to each covered employee, employers must either:

- 1) Provide bona fide fringe benefits which cost the employer no less than the prevailing supplemental benefits rate; or
- 2) Supplement the employee's hourly wage by an amount no less than the prevailing supplemental benefits rate; or
- 3) Provide a combination of bona fide fringe benefits and wage supplements which cost the employer no less than the prevailing supplemental benefits rate in total.

The New York State Minimum Wage Act, Labor Law § 652 et seq., may require a higher wage than the living wage set forth in this schedule. Although prevailing wage laws do not require employers to provide bona fide fringe benefits (as opposed to wage supplements) to their employees, other laws may. For example, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq., the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 42 U.S.C. § 18001 et seq., and the New York City Paid Sick Leave Law, N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 20-911 et seq., require certain employers to provide certain benefits to their employees. Labor agreements to which employers are a party may also require certain benefits. The Comptroller's Office does not enforce these laws or agreements.

Employers must provide prevailing supplemental benefits at the straight time rate for each hour worked unless otherwise noted in the classification.

For more information, please refer to the Comptroller's Prevailing Wage/Living Wage and Minimum Average Hourly Wage Law Regulations in Title 44 of the Rules of the City of New York, Chapters 2 and 3, available at comptroller.nyc.gov/wages.
